Saguaro Chapter 68 - Phoenix, Arizona

Comaraderie – Southwestern Style

Saguaro Chapter 68 is waiting to welcome you to the 2009 WACVA National Convention to be held at the Chaparral Suites Resort in Scottsdale, Arizona from August 19 through 23, 2009. This is the same hotel where we hosted the 2005 Convention.

Located in the heart of Scottsdale, the resort is only minutes from the best that Scottsdale has to offer: upscale Fashion Square Mall, Native American and Southwestern curio shops, art galleries and casinos.

The resort offers

- a casual dining room and lounge
- two over-sized heated pools and whirlpools
- exercise facilities and tennis court
- business center
- car rental desk
- self-service laundry
- gift shop
- dry cleaning service
- Each two-room suite has a separate living room and master bedroom.
- Each features a wet bar with microwave, refrigerator and coffee maker,
- Complimentary airport transportation,
- Complimentary daily cooked-to-order breakfast,
- Complimentary reception each evening (includes two hours of free beer, wine and well drinks),
- Complimentary USA Today
- Free parking for those driving to the convention.
- Golf carts will be available between meeting rooms and around the resort.
- A shuttle to Casino Arizona which is a short distance from the resort will be available.

The cost of the suites is $99 plus tax for double or single occupancy with a $10 fee per room for each additional guest. Total cost for double or single occupancy with tax will be approximately $111.50

Menus and required forms will be published in The Channel
