SECTION A - NATIONAL POLICY

The Women's Army Corps Veterans Association shall have its existence in perpetuity and as such its purpose is to promote the general welfare of all veterans, especially the veterans of the Women's Army Corps and of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, in hospitals or wherever they may be; to provide publications pertaining to its members; and to further the general education and civic betterment programs for the general welfare of the community.

HISTORY

Veterans and active members of the Women's Army Corps met in Chicago, Illinois, in 1946, under the sponsorship of the WAC Mother's Association, to organize a Women's Army Corps Veterans Association. On May 14, 1946 the Chicago Women's Army Corps Veterans Association was formed. On July 26, 1946, they were chartered as a general non-profit corporation in the State of Illinois.

Efforts to organize in other cities began and in August 1947 with a membership of approximately 150 members from five cities (Chicago, Illinois; Cleveland and Columbus Ohio; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania) the first meeting was held to establish a national association.

The first WAC-Veterans Flag was presented to the Association at the second National Convention held in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1948. In 1956 the original flag was sent to the WAC Center at Fort McClellan, Alabama.

On May 11, 1951, the National Certificate of Incorporation was notarized for signatures and on May 14, 1951 it was received for the record in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds, District of Columbia.

At a National Convention held in August 1951, the National Honor Guard was established by a resolution. Its purpose and formation of twenty-two (22) members was further amplified by a recommendation which was accepted at the 1952 mid-year board meeting. Members were selected from those who lived closest to Washington, DC to provide representatives for participation in ceremonies held in the District of Columbia.

The National Executive Council approved the formation of chapters within the Association, at a mid-year board meeting in 1953. As we enter into our 51st year we can be proud of our many accomplishments and contributions, and it is with this same pride and dedication that we can anticipate success in our future endeavors.

SECTION B - CHAPTER

SUGGESTED CHAPTER BYLAWS

The material presented in this section is intended to provide a guide for chapters in the preparation of their Bylaws. Chapter Bylaws should not be a duplicate of the National Bylaws, since a number of the Articles in the National Bylaws pertain only to the operation of the National Organization. The suggested Model has combined several articles in an effort to make Chapter Bylaws easier to develop at the local level. A chapter must give precedence to its needs and capabilities and of its members and insure there is no conflict with national policy.

Chapters must submit their Bylaws and any changes thereof, to the National Constitution and Bylaws Chairperson, for review to insure there is no conflict with national policy. They will become effective upon receipt of her approval and of course any decisions rendered by the National Constitution and Bylaws Chairperson are subject to appeal to the National Executive Board.

A chapter's Bylaws are a reflection of its abilities and goals and it is for those reasons that they need to be kept current and in keeping with national policy.

The information contained in these model bylaws can be depended upon in all cases to which it is applicable and is not inconsistent with the National Constitution and Bylaws.

APPENDIX C

If your Chapter publishes a newsletter the following information is provided as guidance:

- a. All those who submit reports or other informative data shall bear in mind the need for brevity.
- b. Officers and Chairperson are responsible for submitting reports, informative material, or other pertinent material within the deadline set by the Editor. The Editor should not publish any committee or officer's report on her own initiative, but may request submission of material from Officers and Chairpersons for publication. The responsibility of disseminating material in the publication rests with the Board of Directors.
- c. The Editor shall familiarize herself with the provisions of the Chapter's Constitution and Bylaws, and shall review all material for publication to preclude any conflict. If any question, concerning the material submitted for publication, should arise the matter will be referred to the Chapter's President for a final decision.

APPENDIX D

HISTORIAN/PUBLICITY

HISTORIAN:

An accurate record of the history of the Chapter is of vital concern to all members.

The Historian will record the history that occurs throughout her term. She shall gather news items, clippings, pictures and any other material concerning the activities of the chapter and/or the WAC Veterans Association.

She will be responsible for the maintenance of a scrapbook and use the materials she has gathered in each year of her term in office. Additionally, she should provide the National Historian with pictures and any other pertinent material for enclosure into the National Scrapbook. All pictures sent to the National Historian must be documented with the date, place, event, and properly spelled first and last names. The National Historian presents the scrapbook to the National President at the end of the President's term in office.

The Historian will also be responsible for writing the history of the chapter and should have access to all of the minutes of chapter meetings and Board meetings. Additional information can be obtained from chapter correspondence and personal notes taken of any social gatherings.

PUBLICITY:

Publicity for a chapter is very important. The Community needs to become aware of our purpose and activities. There are also many former service women who may be unaware of our Association that may be willing to provide the chapter with additional support.

Chapters need to establish contact with the editors of the local newspapers, radio and television offices/stations. When an event of importance is scheduled at the chapter, be sure the editor(s) is notified with strict adherence to individual deadlines.

A follow up to the editor just prior to an activity should include an invitation to attend. Remember, the press never pays a tab.

Whenever photographs are submitted to the print media, be sure to first query the editor as to their specific requirements. Color photos are never acceptable and most newspapers require at least 5"x7" and usually 8"x10", black and white glossies. Type your caption with proper identification of persons pictured – always with first and last names -- on a separate piece of paper. Put your own name, the chapter name and number, and your phone number on a slip of white paper and attach to the bottom edge of the picture, in case the editor needs more information. NEVER WRITE ON A PHOTO. Don't expect your photos to be returned.

For more specific information, including detailed examples of actual news releases and radio spots contact the National Historian/Publicity Chairperson. A Historian/Publicity Handbook is available from the National Office. Form WACVA CHAP 17 found in Section D will be used to report the Chapters Publicity efforts to the National Historian/Publicity Chairperson.

This was done to assure the Association was well represented, amid the other veteran groups, when participating at various ceremonies held in the District of Columbia.

The overall supervision of the Honor Guard is under the direction of the Captain of the Honor Guard. With the exception of the election of the Captain and Lieutenant of the Honor Guard which is conducted by the National Sergeant-at-Arms.

Application for membership in the National Honor Guard is always encouraged from any member of this Association.. A sample application form is located in the form section of this handbook..

APPENDIX N

CONTRIBUTIONS

The organizations listed in this appendix are only a partial list of those to which this Association makes contributions to.

SEMPERVIRENS FUND - WAC VET REDWOOD MEMORIAL GROVE:

The grove was purchased as an everlasting tribute to all those who have served in the Women's Army Corps. The grove is 10 acres of land located in the Big Basin Redwoods State Park, in the Santa Cruz Mountains, in California. The land cost $8,500 and was adopted as a National WAC Veterans Association project in 1972 and was paid in full in less than two years.

Donations are still being used to save even more Redwood trees by bringing them into the State Park where they will be preserved.

Send donations to: Sempervirens Fund, WAC Vet Redwood Memorial Grove, Los Altos, CA 94022.

THE US ARMY WOMEN'S MUSEUM

1. The Army Women's Foundation (AWF) (founded c. 1969 as the WAC Foundation), continuing through several name changes to today. See web site www.awfdn.org. The AWF supports women soldiers and the Museum. The almost one million dollar addition to the museum (for the education program) will be dedicated Mar 19th. MG Dee McWilliams is president. The AWF is sponsoring a symposium on Capitol Hill in mid-March to call attention to women soldier issues.
2. The Friends of the Army Women's Museum Association (AWM), founded c. '08, and provides support to the education programs for the AWM. They had some 11,000 students attend last year. The education program has expanded to include special programs for handicapped youngsters and home schooled kids.

HOSPITALIZED VETERANS WRITING PROJECT (HVWP):

The HVWP began in 1946 by Elizabeth Fontaine, a journalist, who felt writing was good therapy for the men and women veterans in VA Medical Centers. The Veterans Administration first accepted creative writing as a recreational activity and today it is considered to be an aid to rehabilitation.

In 1952, another journalist, Margaret Sally Keach began the "Veterans' Voice", a publication to allow the veterans to see their efforts in print.

The efforts of these and many other journalists has required countless hours of dedication to insure this project is carried on in all VA Medical Facilities.

Donations may be sent to the Hospitalized Veterans Writing Project, 5920 Nail, Mission, Kansas 66202.

CATHEDRAL OF THE PINES:

This memorial was dedicated in 1946 to all the dead of WWII. In 1966 the Association approved a resolution to donate a sum of money to aid in the maintenance of the Bell Tower and to have the Association's name placed on a plaque which is permanently affixed to the wall of the Bell Tower.

Donations for the care and maintenance of this memorial may be sent to:
Cathedral of the Pines Trust
